WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 9, 1876.

HURRAH for the ALDER STALK!

We guess Capt. Woodward will run as a Baptist next time.

Mr. A. P. HUDSON came within 102 of guessing the result of the Sheriff's race in bloody No. 9.

Dr. W. P. BENNETT, held regular services at court-house last Sunday and Sunday night.

HUBBARD declared that O. P. Johnson should no longer lead the Republican party in Ohio County. Oh, no!

We wonder where those "Many Democrats" of Beaver Dam, who were so warmly for Woodward, kept themselves last Monday!

H. W. LEWIS, of Rosine Ky., was in town last Saturday and Sunday.
We think Hartford has some attractions for Willie.

Quite a party of young ladies and gentlemen from town, attended the Sulphur Springs last Sunday. We regret that we could not attend.

Dr. L. G. ARMENT, formerly of this place, but now of Masonville, is spending a few days in town with his friends and associates.

The colored folk of this place gave an entertainment last Saturday for the colored Methodist church. They also gave a festival at night.

Our circulation up to this time has reached 912, and we hope to still increase it. We confidently expect a bonafide circulation of 1500 within the next year.

WM. HAMILTON was up before his honor Judge F. P. Morgan last Saturday, charged with a breach of the peace by assaulting R. E. Williams. He was fined ten dollars and the cost, and advised to go and sin no more.

A GAME of base ball came off at the fair-grounds last Monday, between the Miners of McHenry and the Whiskey Ring of this place, which resulted in the defeat of the latter by a score of 52 to 15. Try it again boys.

Mr. J. H. LIKENS, who was arrested, charged with committing a theft upon Geo. M. Cox, an account of which appeared in last week's paper, stood an examining trial before Judge Morgan, last Wednesday, and was acquitted.

The colored people of Hartford purpose giving a grand barbecue about a quarter of a mile from town, on the 19th of this month. They expect to have a big time, and invite all to attend. See bills.

The quarterly conference of the M.
E. Church South will be held with the No Creek Church next Saturday and Sunday. A basket dinner will be given on the ground. All who can are requested to bring provisions.

E. SMALL, one of our enterprising dry goods merchants, left yesterday for a trip to the Eastern markets, where he will lay in a full supply of fall and winter merchandise. He has just received a fine lot of latest style best prints, which he will sell for 7 and 8 cents till further notice.

He came home one night with a torn coat which she kindly undertook to mend, but when she turned it upside down so that a letter and a "Domestic Fashion" of a new overskirt, which she had given him to mail to her mother some two weeks before, tumbled out of one of the pockets, it was so lively there for the next ten minutes, that his first move in the morning was in the direction of a wig store, to the proprietor of which he gravely explained that close application to the study of the Foreign Policy of the Khedive of Egypt had done it.

HERE'S YOUR BIG GUN!

Glory Enough for one Day!

C. W. Phillips' Majority Over S.
Woodward for Sheriff, 292.

Not a Democratic victory so much as a triumph of Right over Wrong; of a man sailing under his true colors over a man sailing under a parti-colored flag.
Many men heretofore voting with the Democrats voted for Woodward, and many true Republicans voted square and solid for Phillips.

The Hon. John Allen Murray carried the county for Judge of the Criminal Court by a majority of about 800.

GRANGE LECTURE.—R. D. Smith, lecture of Kentucky State Grange, will give a public lecture at Backhorn Ky., on Thursday, August 17th, 1876, and Goshen Church, August 18th, 1876. Also will complete the organization of Ohio county Grange same date (Aug 18th). Public lecture at 1 o'clock p. m. County Grange meeting at 10 a. m. Members of the order of P. H. are especially expected to attend, and the public generally are invited. Delegates to, and members of County Grange are expected to meet promptly at 10 a. m. at Goshen.
J. W. BARRETT, D. O. C.
Aug. 7th, 1876.

The Grand Circus that was advertised to exhibit in this county last Monday was a failure. The famous equestrian, Mr. Woodward, who undertook to ride so many horses around the ring at the same time, got thrown and badly hurt. He was mounted on six fiery steeds at once, but he did not have them well trained, and the outside horses, to wit, "Republican and Non-partisan, flew the track and caused him to get a tremendous fall. It takes a trained clown and one born and bred to the business to ride six horses at once.

Terrible Accident.
Mr. S. Woodward, of Bell's Store precinct, was rushing along at a furious rate, last week. He saw something in the track before him and concluded it was nothing but an "ALDER STALK," and he would just run over it; but it proved to be a scion of the solid oak, and Mr. Woodward, got badly snagged. Doubts are entertained of his recovery.

MEDICAL STUDENTS.—Medical students are, like almost all of the young men of our country at this time, needing money and requiring assistance.
Ever dollar saved is to them a great advantage, and gives them the opportunity of investing these sums in books and instruments. We understand that the Trustees and Faculty of the Louisville Medical College (Kentucky) have created a number of Beneficiary Scholarships in behalf of those needing such aid; but all of the facts in regard to the matter can be obtained by addressing a letter to the Louisville Medical College, Louisville, Ky.

Real Estate Transfers.
The following Real Estate transfers have been lodged for record since our last report, viz:

John P. Morton et al, by E. R. Murrell Master Commissioner, to Wm.
Warden, 266 acres on Williams' creek.
Geo. W. Renter to James P. Miller, lot in Hamilton $25
John C. Riley to R. C. Hudson, 25 acres on Barnett's creek $725

DIXON ACADEMY.—This flourishing school, under the control of Prof. J.
E. Haynes, Principal, and Miss Nannie Powell, Assistant, will begin its second annual session on the 28th day of August, 1876. The Principal and Assistant are both thoroughly qualified for their respective positions, and the session will no doubt be a successful one.
One good thing we can say is that Dixon is one of the most moral towns in Kentucky, and children sent there to school will have no bar-rooms, gambling dens and such influences to lead them from the path of rectitude. We wish the school abundant success, as it richly deserves it.

Give Your Name.
We must again request persons who send us communications to give us their true name. Every week we receive communications without any name. We will publish any fictitious name you may send us, but we want your real name, as an evidence of good faith. All communications received not signed by some responsible party, will go to the waste basket certainly. We never will publish any communications without knowing the real name of the writer.

HO! FOR SALT RIVER!

The New and Peculiarly Constructed Steamer.

NONDESCRIPT.

Will sail from this port on Friday morning, August 11th, for an excursion up Salt River.

CAPT. STEPHEN WOODWARD, Master.
Col. Q. C. SHANKS, Pilot.
P. M. Gilstrap, 1 clk. L. Woodward 2 clk.

Capt. Woodward has very appropriately nominated Mr. E. Clarence Hubbard as mate of his new vessel, Mr.
H. having evinced on 3rd day of July in the Republican convention, a peculiar fitness for that responsible position. Second mate, A. P. Hudson.
Capt. Woodward has evinced the wisdom and foresight of the experienced navigator, which he is, in selecting his main clerks, Mess. A. C. Ellis and Thos. Hendrix, the former of whom is familiar with the classic stream in which the new vessel will ply, and has many friends and acquaintances at the principal landings, and both of whom are supposed to be eminently popular in the agricultural districts.

Those well-known, active gentlemen,
E. L. Wise, I. H. Baker, Harrison Martin, H. A. Swain, with numerous others equally well known, will act as deck hands and general roustabouts.
Those eminent characters Joiner Brooklin and Joseph Parks, of color, will have charge of the ordinary department, which will be well provided with every delicacy of the season.

The boat will start from the wharf at Hartford at eight and a half o'clock Friday morning. For Freight or passage apply to M. McIntyre, general freight and passenger agent, Hartford, Ky.

P. S.—A limited number of tickets may be had of Benj. Newton at Buford, V. D. D. Stevens, No Creek, or H. B.
Taylor and Alphonso Barnard, Beaver Dam.

The Caney Bridge.

Editor Herald.

I see an article in a grange paper in which the writer claims for the grange organization, all the honor of the wide-spread and imperative demand for retrenchment and reform at this time so happily stirs and engages the attention of the people of these United States. Now, whether his claim is well founded or not, is not the point in the article.

I also see an article in the Hartford Herald, in which the writer asks the court of claims for another thousand dollars in addition to the one thousand already appropriated to build a bridge across Caney creek. The writer to my certain knowledge is a prominent granger and entitled to his share of the aforesaid honor. Then let us stick to the text. One of the charges against Secretary Robeson, is that he has squandered two hundred thousand dollars and one item in that charge is that he gave his contracts to unskilled workmen who knew but little or nothing of ship building.

Now, we are not informed by the article referred to that he is a skilled bridge builder the which I very much doubt but he estimates the cost at two thousand dollars. Now, I know that skilled workmen have estimated on that bridge and I know the figures to be not over twelve hundred dollars.
Then why give a man who has never had any experience in that line, eight hundred dollars more than the mechanic who has learned the trade would do it for? Is that granger retrenchment?

If it is the policy of the much honest grange to ignore the utility or even existence of the mechanic an fill his place with those who know nothing of his trade, I suppose we must submit.
TAX AND TAXED.

Malarial Regions.

The inhabitants of malarial districts, who are constantly breathing an impure and poisoned atmosphere are subject to lingering and malignant and fatal diseases, such as Ague, Typhoid Fever, and Yellow Fever and Asiatic Cholera. In many sections of the western country almost every one is subject to chills and fever, an ailment most difficult to cure. The unhealthy effects of living in such miasmatic sections are destroyed by the free use of DR. RADCLIFF'S SEVEN SEALS or GOLDEN WONDER. This standard remedy is unequalled for the prevention and cure of the class of diseases prevalent in low and marshy lands, and being a purely vegetable preparation; can be used in any quantity without danger to the system.

FOR RENT.—The house known as Arment's carpenter shop. Apply to E. R. Murrell, Receiver Ohio Circuit Court.

Dr. H. BALDWIN, Elizabethtown, is the guest of the Hartford House.

KNOW THYSELF.

BY VIOLA.

Chilo was indeed wise when he said Non Tripsim, (know thyself,) and much esteem is due this maxim. For of all the complicated lessons in human life, is to learn and comprehend to every degree oneself. To understand our disposition, and to know our faults as well as our good qualities. I think were the characters of illustrious men, whose names are written indelibly on the tablet of fame, searched into, they would be found as ignorant of their own nature as one who had never made the world their study.

We never think of study ourself, had rather cover our faults with a curtain of silence, and draw to full view the faults of others. Thus, while continually studying others, we forget ourself. Others' failings, though they may be less than ours, in the magnifying eyes of self are enlarged to a much greater extent.

How true "that before casting the stone from our neighbor's eye, we should consider the beam in our own eye."

Look, for instance, at the character of Mark Anthony. Had he known himself better, do you suppose he would have summoned Cleopatra to appear before him? He of course had heard of her renown, beauty of person, but thought himself too strong to yield to the weak passion of love. But he did not know himself—and he fell—as many Anthonys do now-a-day, a victim to his enchantress's charms, leaving Octavia, his noble wife, stricken down in sorrow.

It is my opinion, were the young ladies and gentlemen to study more thoroughly themselves, and learn lessons of human nature by putting themselves in others' places, there would be less flirting, less heart-breaking, and more sensible people. The ignorance of one's self has led to much great wrong, and would attribute the many bankruptcies of the day to the fact that men know not themselves. Know nothing of their capacities, over-rating their business qualities, sinking themselves into utter ruin.
CALHOON, KY., Aug. 4, 1876.

From Spring Lick.

SPRING LICK, Aug. 8, 76.

Editor Herald:

On last Friday, while returning from Millwood, Mr. Wm. Anderson was struck by lightning and instantly killed.
It appears that he had not gone more than two miles when the clouds began to blacken with prospects of a shower. Not wishing to get wet, he elected himself underneath an oak tree near the road side in order to be protected from the rain. He had not been there long when the lightning struck him, killing him and his horse instantly, the bridle reins of which held fast in his hands when discovered by some neighbors who were not afar off at the time.

Attention.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to me, or I will please call and is ordered that the secretary solicit subscriptions from among the stock holders to redeem the same. Said tive practice, having placed in his hands by an East India Missionary the formula of a simple Vegetable Remedy, for the speedy and perma-

Catarrh, Asthma, and all throat and Lung Affections, also a Positive and Radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having thoroughly tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, feels it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Attuated by this motivation, and a conscientious desire to relieve human suffering, he will send (free of charge) to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and successfully using. Sent
